

File Location

Do you want to set Config File ?

When installing the newer version, a window will pop up for configuring the file. Users need to select the appropriate ConfigProperties.xml file to assign all paths at once.

Users with password access can log in and modify the configuration path. Clicking 'Save' will update the configuration file in the database.

Use the 'Set Configuration Path' option to select a different configuration file.

